Commitment to Ethical Conduct for Minors Volunteering or Working with Younger Children

I promise to follow faithfully the rules and guidelines in the Diocese of Kansas City- St. Joseph Code of Ethical Conduct for Minors Volunteering or Working with Younger Children.

I understand that I may be removed from my position of working with children if I don't follow this code.

I further understand that I may be required to participate in education and training provided by the school or parish I attend.

Code of Ethical Conduct for Minors Volunteering or Working with Younger Children

You are about to begin what could be a lifelong commitment to working or volunteering for the Catholic Church. It is a privilege to help carry on the mission of Jesus Christ, one that no one takes lightly. It is important you follow certain rules and guidelines, both for your protection and for the protection of those to whom you minister. The church takes the issue of misconduct very seriously. Certainly any instance of your misconduct will be evaluated carefully, and you are urged to report any instances of misconduct that you see to the adult in charge.

General Conduct for Volunteers or Workers Who Are Minors

Conduct that is permissible – the following forms of affection are customarily regarded as appropriate:

- verbal praise
- handshakes
- high-fives or knuckle bumps
- pats on the shoulder or back
- side hugs
- holding hands while walking with small children
- sitting beside small children
- kneeling or bending down for hugs with small children
- holding hands during prayer

Conduct that is not permissible – in order to maintain the safest possible environment for minors, the following are examples of affection that are not to be used:

- inappropriate or lengthy embraces
- kisses on the mouth
- holding children over four years old on the lap
- touching private areas of any child's body
- showing affection in isolated areas such as bedrooms, closets, staff-only areas or other private rooms
- wrestling with minors
- piggyback rides
- any type of massage
- any form of unwanted affection
- comments about a child's body or their development

The Diocese of Kansas City- St. Joseph is grateful for the service you provide. Whenever you have questions or whenever you are uncertain about what is required, ask the adults with whom you work.
