Yes, because Jesus is the Son of God and God can't tell a lie.

4. Is there a change that takes place at Mass? What is it?

Yes. The change that takes place at Mass is the changing of the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ. This change is called TRANSUBSTANTIATION.

5. What does that mean?

It means that after the priest (Jesus) says this is my body or this is my blood, the bread is no longer bread, the wine is no longer wine, but it is the body and the blood of Jesus. It still looks and tastes and smells like bread and wine, but it REALLY IS NOW THE BODY AND BLOOD OF JESUS.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, Born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from there He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.

Amen.
